

Independent Contractor Engagement Letter — Troutly Analytics, Inc.

Contractor: Henrike Sato

Contractor ID: CTR-2001

Effective Date: 11/03/2025

Engagement Owner: Jessica Ko, Engineering Manager

Troutly Analytics, Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 2405 South Congress Avenue, Austin, TX 78704 ("Company"), and Henrike Sato ("Contractor") agree to the terms set forth below.

1. Independent Contractor Status. Contractor is engaged as an independent contractor and is not an employee, partner, agent, or joint venturer of the Company. Contractor is not eligible for any benefits, allowances, insurance coverage, paid leave, sick leave, holiday pay, retirement contributions, equity awards, or any other program the Company makes available to its employees. The Company will not withhold federal, state, or local income tax, social security, Medicare, unemployment insurance, or any similar amount from any payment made to Contractor. Contractor is solely responsible for reporting and paying all federal self-employment tax and all applicable state and local taxes on amounts received under this engagement. Contractor will provide Contractor's own tools and equipment except where the Company issues specific credentials or accounts required to access Company systems.

2. Scope of Engagement. Contractor will provide contract data engineering services in support of the Company's analytics pipeline, including ingestion, transformation, and warehouse-layer work under the direction of the Engagement Owner. The Engagement Owner will define specific deliverables and priorities by written work order, sprint plan, or ticket assignment. Contractor will perform the services with reasonable skill, care, and diligence, consistent with generally accepted practices for senior data engineering work.

3. Compensation. The Company will pay Contractor at the rate of $115.00 per hour for hours worked and properly recorded, capped at 30 hours per calendar week unless the Engagement Owner authorizes additional hours in writing in advance. Hours in excess of the weekly cap without written authorization will not be compensable.

4. Payment Terms. Contractor will invoice the Company monthly, in arrears, no later than the fifth (5th) business day of the month following the month in which services were rendered. Each invoice must itemize hours by day with a brief description of work performed and reference this engagement (CTR-2001). Undisputed invoices will be paid via ACH within thirty (30) days of receipt. Disputed amounts will be identified in writing within ten (10) business days of receipt and will not delay payment of the undisputed balance.

5. Tax Reporting. The Company will report amounts paid to Contractor on IRS Form 1099-NEC for each calendar year in which such amounts equal or exceed the applicable reporting threshold. Contractor has furnished, or will furnish prior to first payment, a completed and signed IRS Form W-9 reflecting Contractor's correct legal name and taxpayer identification number.

6. Confidentiality. Contractor acknowledges that in the course of the engagement Contractor will receive or have access to non-public information of the Company, its customers, vendors, and prospects, including source code, data schemas, customer identities, financial and pricing information, business plans, and personnel information ("Confidential Information"). Contractor will hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence, will use it solely to perform services for the Company, will not disclose it to any third party without prior written authorization from the Company, and will return or destroy all Confidential Information in Contractor's possession within ten (10) days of termination of this engagement. The obligations of this Section survive termination.

7. Termination. Either party may terminate this engagement at any time, with or without cause, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other party. The Company may terminate immediately for material breach, including breach of Section 6 (Confidentiality). Upon termination, Contractor will submit a final invoice for services rendered through the effective date of termination; the Company will pay all undisputed amounts in accordance with Section 4.

8. Miscellaneous. This letter, together with any written work orders issued under it, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter and supersedes any prior discussions or understandings. It is governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Amendments must be in writing signed by both parties.

Agreed and accepted:

TROUTLY ANALYTICS, INC.

By: Michael Labeson

Michael Labeson

Chief Executive Officer

Date: 10/29/2025

CONTRACTOR

Henrike Sato

Henrike Sato

Date: 10/30/2025

Independent Contractor Engagement Letter — Troutly Analytics, Inc.

Contractor: Piet Vanterpool

Contractor ID: CTR-2002

Effective Date: 12/01/2025

Engagement Owner: Jessica Ko, Engineering Manager

Troutly Analytics, Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 2405 South Congress Avenue, Austin, TX 78704 ("Company"), and Piet Vanterpool ("Contractor") agree to the terms set forth below.

1. Independent Contractor Status. Contractor is engaged as an independent contractor and is not an employee, partner, agent, or joint venturer of the Company. Contractor is not eligible for any benefits, allowances, insurance coverage, paid leave, sick leave, holiday pay, retirement contributions, equity awards, or any other program the Company makes available to its employees. The Company will not withhold federal, state, or local income tax, social security, Medicare, unemployment insurance, or any similar amount from any payment made to Contractor. Contractor is solely responsible for reporting and paying all federal self-employment tax and all applicable state and local taxes on amounts received under this engagement. Contractor will provide Contractor's own tools and equipment except where the Company issues specific credentials or accounts required to access Company systems.

2. Scope of Engagement. Contractor will provide contract backend engineering services in support of the Company's reporting API, including endpoint development, query optimization, and integration work under the direction of the Engagement Owner. The Engagement Owner will define specific deliverables and priorities by written work order, sprint plan, or ticket assignment. Contractor will perform the services with reasonable skill, care, and diligence, consistent with generally accepted practices for senior backend engineering work.

3. Compensation. The Company will pay Contractor at the rate of $105.00 per hour for hours worked and properly recorded, capped at 32 hours per calendar week unless the Engagement Owner authorizes additional hours in writing in advance. Hours in excess of the weekly cap without written authorization will not be compensable.

4. Payment Terms. Contractor will invoice the Company monthly, in arrears, no later than the fifth (5th) business day of the month following the month in which services were rendered. Each invoice must itemize hours by day with a brief description of work performed and reference this engagement (CTR-2002). Undisputed invoices will be paid via ACH within thirty (30) days of receipt. Disputed amounts will be identified in writing within ten (10) business days of receipt and will not delay payment of the undisputed balance.

5. Tax Reporting. The Company will report amounts paid to Contractor on IRS Form 1099-NEC for each calendar year in which such amounts equal or exceed the applicable reporting threshold. Contractor has furnished, or will furnish prior to first payment, a completed and signed IRS Form W-9 reflecting Contractor's correct legal name and taxpayer identification number.

6. Confidentiality. Contractor acknowledges that in the course of the engagement Contractor will receive or have access to non-public information of the Company, its customers, vendors, and prospects, including source code, data schemas, customer identities, financial and pricing information, business plans, and personnel information ("Confidential Information"). Contractor will hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence, will use it solely to perform services for the Company, will not disclose it to any third party without prior written authorization from the Company, and will return or destroy all Confidential Information in Contractor's possession within ten (10) days of termination of this engagement. The obligations of this Section survive termination.

7. Termination. Either party may terminate this engagement at any time, with or without cause, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other party. The Company may terminate immediately for material breach, including breach of Section 6 (Confidentiality). Upon termination, Contractor will submit a final invoice for services rendered through the effective date of termination; the Company will pay all undisputed amounts in accordance with Section 4.

8. Miscellaneous. This letter, together with any written work orders issued under it, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter and supersedes any prior discussions or understandings. It is governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Amendments must be in writing signed by both parties.

Agreed and accepted:

TROUTLY ANALYTICS, INC.

By: Michael Labeson
Michael Labeson
Chief Executive Officer
Date: 11/24/2025

CONTRACTOR

Piet Vanterpool
Piet Vanterpool
Date: 11/25/2025

Independent Contractor Engagement Letter — Troutly Analytics, Inc.

Contractor: Ines Farahani-Boyd

Contractor ID: CTR-2003

Effective Date: 01/05/2026

Engagement Owner: Sora Jackson, Chief Technology Officer

Troutly Analytics, Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 2405 South Congress Avenue, Austin, TX 78704 ("Company"), and Ines Farahani-Boyd ("Contractor") agree to the terms set forth below.

1. Independent Contractor Status. Contractor is engaged as an independent contractor and is not an employee, partner, agent, or joint venturer of the Company. Contractor is not eligible for any benefits, allowances, insurance coverage, paid leave, sick leave, holiday pay, retirement contributions, equity awards, or any other program the Company makes available to its employees. The Company will not withhold federal, state, or local income tax, social security, Medicare, unemployment insurance, or any similar amount from any payment made to Contractor. Contractor is solely responsible for reporting and paying all federal self-employment tax and all applicable state and local taxes on amounts received under this engagement. Contractor will provide Contractor's own tools and equipment except where the Company issues specific credentials or accounts required to access Company systems.

2. Scope of Engagement. Contractor will provide contract product design services for the Company's dashboard redesign initiative, including discovery, wireframes, high-fidelity mockups, design system contributions, and design review, under the direction of the Engagement Owner. The Engagement Owner will define specific deliverables and priorities by written brief. Contractor will perform the services with reasonable skill, care, and diligence, consistent with generally accepted practices for senior product design work.

3. Compensation. The Company will pay Contractor a monthly retainer of $9,800.00 in exchange for the availability and services described in Section 2. The retainer contemplates a typical monthly commitment sufficient to advance the dashboard redesign at the cadence agreed with the Engagement Owner. Work materially exceeding that scope will be negotiated in a separate written work order signed by both parties before commencement.

4. Payment Terms. Contractor will invoice the Company monthly, in arrears, no later than the fifth (5th) business day of the month following the month of service, in the amount of the retainer plus any pre-approved additional-scope amounts. Each invoice will reference this engagement (CTR-2003). Undisputed invoices will be paid via ACH within thirty (30) days of receipt. Disputed amounts will be identified in writing within ten (10) business days of receipt and will not delay payment of the undisputed balance.

5. Tax Reporting. The Company will report amounts paid to Contractor on IRS Form 1099-NEC for each calendar year in which such amounts equal or exceed the applicable reporting threshold. Contractor has furnished, or will furnish prior to first payment, a completed and signed IRS Form W-9 reflecting Contractor's correct legal name and taxpayer identification number.

6. Confidentiality. Contractor acknowledges that in the course of the engagement Contractor will receive or have access to non-public information of the Company, its customers, vendors, and prospects, including product roadmaps, research artifacts, design source files, customer identities, financial and pricing information, business plans, and personnel information ("Confidential Information"). Contractor will hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence, will use it solely to perform services for the Company, will not disclose it to any third party without prior written authorization from the Company, and will return or destroy all Confidential Information in Contractor's possession within ten (10) days of termination of this engagement. The obligations of this Section survive termination.

7. Termination. Either party may terminate this engagement at any time, with or without cause, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other party. The Company may terminate immediately for material breach, including breach of Section 6 (Confidentiality). Upon termination, Contractor will submit a final invoice, prorated for any partial month based on days elapsed in that month; the Company will pay all undisputed amounts in accordance with Section 4.

8. Miscellaneous. This letter, together with any written work orders issued under it, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter and supersedes any prior discussions or understandings. It is governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Amendments must be in writing signed by both parties.

Agreed and accepted:

TROUTLY ANALYTICS, INC.

By: Michael Labeson

Michael Labeson

Chief Executive Officer

Date: 12/29/2025

CONTRACTOR

Ines Farahani-Boyd

Ines Farahani-Boyd

Date: 12/30/2025

Independent Contractor Engagement Letter — Troutly Analytics, Inc.

Contractor: Obadiah Winterbourne

Contractor ID: CTR-2004

Effective Date: 06/08/2026

Engagement Owner: Jessica Ko, Engineering Manager

Troutly Analytics, Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 2405 South Congress Avenue, Austin, TX 78704 ("Company"), and Obadiah Winterbourne ("Contractor") agree to the terms set forth below.

1. Independent Contractor Status. Contractor is engaged as an independent contractor and is not an employee, partner, agent, or joint venturer of the Company. Contractor is not eligible for any benefits, allowances, insurance coverage, paid leave, sick leave, holiday pay, retirement contributions, equity awards, or any other program the Company makes available to its employees. The Company will not withhold federal, state, or local income tax, social security, Medicare, unemployment insurance, or any similar amount from any payment made to Contractor. Contractor is solely responsible for reporting and paying all federal self-employment tax and all applicable state and local taxes on amounts received under this engagement. Contractor will provide Contractor's own tools and equipment except where the Company issues specific credentials or accounts required to access Company systems.

2. Scope of Engagement. Contractor will provide contract QA analysis services in support of the Company's engineering release cycle, including test plan authoring, regression execution, defect triage, and release readiness reporting under the direction of the Engagement Owner. The Engagement Owner will define specific deliverables and priorities by written work order, sprint plan, or ticket assignment. Contractor will perform the services with reasonable skill, care, and diligence, consistent with generally accepted practices for QA analyst work.

3. Compensation. The Company will pay Contractor at the rate of $78.00 per hour for hours worked and properly recorded, capped at 25 hours per calendar week unless the Engagement Owner authorizes additional hours in writing in advance. Hours in excess of the weekly cap without written authorization will not be compensable.

4. Payment Terms. Contractor will invoice the Company monthly, in arrears, no later than the fifth (5th) business day of the month following the month in which services were rendered. Each invoice must itemize hours by day with a brief description of work performed and reference this engagement (CTR-2004). Undisputed invoices will be paid via ACH within thirty (30) days of receipt. Disputed amounts will be identified in writing within ten (10) business days of receipt and will not delay payment of the undisputed balance.

5. Tax Reporting. The Company will report amounts paid to Contractor on IRS Form 1099-NEC for each calendar year in which such amounts equal or exceed the applicable reporting threshold. Contractor has furnished, or will furnish prior to first payment, a completed and signed IRS Form W-9 reflecting Contractor's correct legal name and taxpayer identification number.

6. Confidentiality. Contractor acknowledges that in the course of the engagement Contractor will receive or have access to non-public information of the Company, its customers, vendors, and prospects, including source code, test data, defect databases, customer identities, financial and pricing information, business plans, and personnel information ("Confidential Information"). Contractor will hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence, will use it solely to perform services for the Company, will not disclose it to any third party without prior written authorization from the Company, and will return or destroy all Confidential Information in Contractor's possession within ten (10) days of termination of this engagement. The obligations of this Section survive termination.

7. Termination. Either party may terminate this engagement at any time, with or without cause, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other party. The Company may terminate immediately for material breach, including breach of Section 6 (Confidentiality). Upon termination, Contractor will submit a final invoice for services rendered through the effective date of termination; the Company will pay all undisputed amounts in accordance with Section 4.

8. Miscellaneous. This letter, together with any written work orders issued under it, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter and supersedes any prior discussions or understandings. It is governed by the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Amendments must be in writing signed by both parties.

Agreed and accepted:

TROUTLY ANALYTICS, INC.

By: Michael Labeson

Michael Labeson

Chief Executive Officer

Date: 06/02/2026

CONTRACTOR

Obadiah Winterbourne

Obadiah Winterbourne

Date: 06/03/2026