Re: Offer of Employment by Troutly Analytics, Inc.

Dear Amara:

I am very pleased to confirm our offer of employment with Troutly Analytics, Inc. (the “Company”) on the terms set forth below. We were impressed by the strength of your candidacy and look forward to the contributions you will make to the Engineering organization.

1. Position and Reporting Line. You will be employed by the Company in the position of Software Engineer II, a full-time exempt role within the Engineering organization. You will report to Jessica Ko, Engineering Manager, or to such other member of Company management as the Company may designate from time to time. You will perform such duties as are customary for the position and such additional duties as the Company may reasonably assign. You are expected to devote your full business time, attention, and best efforts to the performance of your duties for the Company.

2. Start Date. Your first day of employment with the Company will be September 29, 2025 (the “Start Date”), subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 8 below. If for any reason you are unable to commence employment on the Start Date, you must notify the Company in writing as soon as reasonably practicable so that an alternative date may be discussed.

3. Base Salary and Pay Frequency. Your annual base salary will be One Hundred Twenty-Six Thousand Five Hundred Dollars (USD $126,500.00), payable in accordance with the Company’s standard payroll practices. Base salary is paid on a semi-monthly basis over twenty-four (24) pay periods per year, with regular pay dates on the fifteenth (15th) day and the last day of each calendar month, less all applicable taxes, withholdings, and deductions required by law. Because your position is classified as exempt under the Fair Labor Standards Act, you will not be eligible for overtime compensation. Your base salary will be reviewed periodically in accordance with the Company’s standard compensation review practices and may be adjusted prospectively at the Company’s discretion.

4. Equity Grant. Subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company and to the terms and conditions of the Troutly Analytics, Inc. 2019 Stock Plan (the “Plan”) and the applicable award agreement, the Company will recommend to the Board that you be granted an option to purchase shares of the Company’s common stock at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of such shares on the date of grant, as determined by the Board. The option will be subject to a four (4) year vesting schedule, with twenty-five percent (25%) of the shares vesting on the first anniversary of your vesting commencement date and the remaining shares vesting in thirty-six (36) equal monthly installments thereafter, in each case subject to your continued service through each applicable vesting date. All terms of the equity award, including the number of shares subject to the option, will be governed exclusively by the Plan and by the award agreement to be entered into between you and the Company following Board approval. Nothing in this letter constitutes a grant of equity or a promise of any particular grant.

5. Benefits. Beginning on the first day of the calendar month following the completion of thirty (30) days of eligible employment, you will be eligible to participate in the group medical, dental, vision, and other benefit programs that the Company makes available to its similarly situated employees, subject in each case to the eligibility requirements, terms, and conditions of the applicable plan documents and to the Company’s employee handbook, as each may be amended from time to time. You will also be eligible to accrue paid time off in accordance with the Company’s paid time off policy as set forth in the employee handbook. The Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to modify, supplement, or discontinue any of its benefit programs at any time, subject to applicable law and the terms of the governing plan documents.

6. At-Will Employment. Your employment with the Company is and will at all times be on an “at-will” basis. This means that either you or the Company may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause and with or without advance notice. Nothing in this letter, in any Company policy, or in any statement made to you by any representative of the Company, is intended to create, or should be construed as creating, a contract of employment for any specific duration or a right to continued employment. This at-will relationship may only be modified by a written agreement signed by you and by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company that expressly states an intent to modify the at-will nature of your employment.

7. Confidentiality and Invention Assignment Agreement. As a condition of your employment, and in consideration of the compensation and other benefits offered under this letter, you will be required to execute, on or before the Start Date, the Company's standard Employee Confidentiality and Invention Assignment Agreement (the "Confidentiality Agreement"), which will be provided to you separately. Among other things, the Confidentiality Agreement obligates you to protect the confidentiality of the Company's proprietary information, to assign to the Company inventions and works of authorship developed within the scope of your employment, and to comply with restrictions on solicitation and on the use of third-party confidential information. You represent that your acceptance of this offer, your execution of the Confidentiality Agreement, and your performance of the duties contemplated by this offer will not conflict with, or result in the breach of, any agreement to which you are a party or by which you are bound, and that you will not bring to the Company or use in the performance of your duties any confidential or proprietary information belonging to any prior employer or other third party.

8. Contingencies: Background Check and Employment Eligibility Verification. This offer of employment is expressly contingent upon: (a) the Company's satisfactory completion of a background and reference check conducted in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act and applicable state law, for which you will be asked to provide written authorization; and (b) your timely completion of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services Form I-9, together with your presentation, within three (3) business days of the Start Date, of original documentation establishing your identity and your authorization to work in the United States, as required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. Should the Company determine, in its reasonable and good-faith discretion, that either of these contingencies has not been satisfied, the Company reserves the right to withdraw or rescind this offer or, if you have already commenced employment, to terminate your employment.

9. Acceptance. This offer will remain open for your consideration until 5:00 p.m. Central Time on September 15, 2025. To accept, please sign and date this letter in the spaces provided below and return a signed copy to the Company. Your signature acknowledges that you have read, understand, and agree to the terms and conditions set forth herein, that this letter, together with the Confidentiality Agreement, constitutes the entire agreement between you and the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof, and that this letter supersedes any prior oral or written communications, representations, or agreements between you and the Company regarding your employment.

We are excited about the prospect of your joining the Company and are confident that you will make a meaningful contribution to our team. If you have any questions about this offer, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Very truly yours,

TROUTLY ANALYTICS, INC.
