Re: Offer of Employment by Troutly Analytics, Inc.

Dear Kwame:

I am very pleased to confirm our offer to you of employment with Troutly Analytics, Inc. (the “Company”). You will report to Sora Jackson, Chief Technology Officer, in the position of Data Analyst II. This offer is issued against requisition REQ-2026-038 (Data Analyst II, Product). The terms of our offer and the benefits currently provided by the Company are as follows:

1. Position. You will serve as a Data Analyst II in the Company’s Product organization, based at the Company’s Austin, Texas offices. This is a full-time, exempt position under the Fair Labor Standards Act. You will report to Sora Jackson, Chief Technology Officer, and will perform such duties as are customary for the position and as may be assigned to you from time to time.

2. Start Date. Your first day of employment with the Company will be September 8, 2026 (“Start Date”). Should you require a change to the Start Date, please contact the undersigned or the Talent Acquisition team in writing at least five (5) business days in advance.

3. Base Salary. Your starting base salary will be USD $89,500.00 on an annualized basis, paid biweekly in accordance with the Company’s regular payroll schedule (twenty-six pay periods per year), less all applicable taxes, withholdings, and deductions required by law. Your salary will be reviewed periodically in accordance with the Company’s normal compensation review practices.

4. Equity. Subject to approval by the Board of Directors of the Company (or its authorized delegate) at its next regularly scheduled meeting following your Start Date, you will be recommended for a grant of stock options to purchase shares of the Company’s common stock in an amount consistent with the Company’s then-current equity guidelines for the Data Analyst II level. Any such grant will be governed by the Company’s equity incentive plan and the applicable grant agreement, including a four (4) year vesting schedule with a one (1) year cliff, and will be subject in all respects to the terms of those documents.

5. Benefits. You will be eligible to participate in the Company’s benefits programs, including medical, dental and vision coverage, in accordance with the terms of the Company’s Employee Handbook and the applicable plan documents, each as in effect from time to time. Consistent with the Company’s medical eligibility rule, coverage will become effective on the first day of the month following thirty (30) days of eligible employment. Based on your Start Date, your benefits eligibility date is October 1, 2026. You will also be eligible to accrue paid time off in accordance with the Company’s PTO policy as in effect on your Start Date. The Company may modify its benefits programs from time to time as it deems necessary.

6. At-Will Employment. Your employment with the Company will be “at will,” meaning that either you or the Company may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause and with or without notice. Nothing in this letter, in any Company handbook, policy or practice, or in any oral or written statement by a Company representative, is intended to create, or shall be construed to create, an employment agreement for any specific period of time or to alter the at-will nature of the relationship. Any change to this at-will status must be made in a writing signed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company that expressly refers to this Section 6.

7. Confidentiality and Invention Assignment. As a condition of your employment, you will be required to execute the Company's standard Employee Confidential Information and Invention Assignment Agreement (the "Confidentiality Agreement"), a copy of which will be sent to you separately for your review and signature. Your signed acceptance of the Confidentiality Agreement must be returned to the Company on or before your Start Date. You represent that your employment with the Company and the performance of your duties will not conflict with, or breach, any agreement to which you are a party (including any non-disclosure or non-competition agreement), and that you will not bring to the Company or use in the performance of your duties any proprietary or confidential information of any prior employer or third party.

8. Contingencies. This offer is contingent upon (i) satisfactory completion of the Company's standard background verification, including verification of employment history, education and references; and (ii) your submission of documentation establishing your identity and authorization to work in the United States, as required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 and evidenced by a properly completed Form I-9, on or before your third business day of employment. This offer will expire and be of no further force or effect if you have not returned a signed copy of this letter to the Company by 5:00 p.m. Central Time on August 25, 2026.

9. Acceptance. To indicate your acceptance of the Company's offer on the terms set forth above, please sign and date this letter in the space provided below and return it to the Company. This letter, together with the Confidentiality Agreement, sets forth the entire agreement and understanding between you and the Company regarding the subject matter of your employment and supersedes any prior representations or agreements, whether written or oral.

We are excited about the contributions we expect you to make to the team and look forward to welcoming you to Troutly Analytics.

Sincerely,

TROUTLY ANALYTICS, INC.
